

A FRAMEWORK FOR CIVIL DISCOURSE

14 Principles for Cultural Peace

Fair, impartial rules above the fray — protecting innocent people during cultural conflict

01 SELF-DETERMINATION

Allow people to enjoy their own communities.
Don't invade others' conversations.

02 BANKING NEUTRALITY

No one may be economically outlawed without due process.

03 IMMUNITY FROM PARTIALITY

Firing on moral grounds requires legal threshold and proven negative intent.

04 FREEDOM FROM ASSAULT

No doxxing, harassment, or threats. Everyone has the right to privacy.

05 FREEDOM FROM POLITICAL DISCRIMINATION

End prejudice in employment, education, or housing based on politics.

06 JUDICIAL REPORTING EMBARGO

No media reporting on sensitive cases until verdict. Avoid trial by opinion.

07 STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

Conduct older than 5 years or before age 25 should not be held against people.

08 FREEDOM FROM SECRET EXCLUSION

No shadowbanning. People deserve to know if they're being silenced.

09 TRANSPARENCY OF JUDGMENT

Algorithmic decisions affecting reputation must be explainable.

10 FREEDOM OF CONSCIOUSNESS

Technology must not manipulate behavior or perception of reality.

11 FREEDOM TO ENJOY CULTURE

Cultural appreciation is welcome. Subversion or co-opting is not.

12 EQUALITY OF PUBLIC ACCESS

Public corporations cannot remove access without good reason.

13 FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION

Following someone doesn't equal endorsement. No guilt by association.

14 NO MONOPOLIES ON TRUTH

No group owns the truth. Lived experience can bias as well as inform.
